Financial Policy

The Sparano Face and Nasal Institute is committed to providing the highest standard of care. In so doing, we aim to build secure and successful professional relationships with our patients. To do so, we feel it is important for you to understand our financial policy.

Insurance:

- You must provide proof of current insurance at every visit and update us with any demographic changes.
- You must provide a referral, if required by your insurance company, prior to your visit or otherwise pay cash.
- You are responsible for any co-pays, deductibles, and coinsurance as required by your insurance company at the time of service. A $10 processing fee will be added if the co-pay is not provided.
- Your insurance policy is a contract between you and your insurance company, therefore it is your responsibility to know your benefits.
- All fees generated are the responsibility of the patient.
- Insurance plan participation is subject to change.
- If we are not contracted with your insurance company, we do not accept their fee schedule as payment in full. Any balance is the patient's responsibility.

Diagnostic Endoscopy:

- Use of endoscopes is often important and necessary to appropriately diagnose sinonasal and other related conditions.
- Your insurance company may consider endoscopy a "surgical procedure" for billing purposes.
- The associated charge may be subject to additional deductible or coinsurance according to your surgical plan benefits.
- As with all healthcare services, you can decline endoscopy, but Dr. Sparano may feel it affords optimal diagnosis and/or treatment.

Fees:

Missed appointments require 24 hours prior notice. If proper notice is not given, the fees are as follows. These fees will automatically be charged to your credit card on file.

- Missed medical appointment $50
- Missed office procedure/Consultations $125

Returned check fee $25

Collection Agency:

All patient accounts that become 60 days delinquent may be sent to an outside collection agency, or attorney. This can result from possible discharge from the practice.

I have read and understand the terms and conditions set forth in the above policy. I understand that a duplicate copy of the financial policy is available for my reference upon request.
